Michigan Campus Compact Welcomes New Executive Director

January 14, 2010 - LANSING, MI – Michigan Campus Compact (MCC) is pleased to announce the appointment of Renee Zientek as MCC's new Executive Director.

Building on Michigan Campus Compact's 20 years of success, Zientek will lead MCC efforts to transform higher education by promoting and educating Michigan college students to be civically engaged citizens.

"We were impressed with Renee's energy, passion, and leadership, with her organizational and management skills, and with her idealism," said Dr. Don Tuski, Board of Directors Chair for Michigan Campus Compact and President of Olivet College.

Renee most recently served as the Assistant Vice Chancellor for University Outreach at the University of Michigan – Flint, under Academic Affairs. Zientek brings a breadth of experience to this position including the integration of research and service, campus/community partnerships, fund development, and advancement of civic engagement and public scholarship.

About Michigan Campus Compact

Michigan Campus Compact (MCC) is a coalition of college and university presidents who are committed to fulfilling the public purpose of higher education. We promote the education and commitment of Michigan college students to be civically engaged citizens, through creating and expanding academic, co-curricular and campus-wide opportunities for community service, service-learning and civic engagement.
