

Michigan Campus Compact Member Spotlight

Saginaw Valley State University

The Great Lakes Affiliate of College and University Residence Halls (GLACURH) is a regional organization comprised of students from campuses in Michigan, Ontario, Wisconsin, Illinois, and Indiana. GLACURH exists to make living on campus a better experience for all students.

Saginaw Valley State University Nick Tereck was selected as the GLACURH 2005 Student of the Year based on his service to campus through organizations, his service through residence halls, and his service to the state, region, and nation. Tereck, who has over 50 hours of community service, has spent much of his volunteer time at senior citizen homes. He plans to go to Greenville, South Carolina this spring on an Alternative Break to help assist girls ages 9 to 21 who have been abused.

Tereck is a member of many committees within the region and nation, and his heavy involvement helped him win this award. The bid was created and submitted to the GLACURH Regional Board who then judged it with many others from across the region. Tereck will now act as the representative from GLACURH to the national organization known as NACURH, the National Association of College and University Residence Halls.

Nick will compete in May, 2006
with seven other students across the United States for the National Student Of The Year Award.
